NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Schuyler County Legislature hereby authorizes amending the Contract Policy Manual to add the following Section III below, effective immediately.

III. GRANT APPLICATIONS AND RESULTING CONTRACTS.

- A. Unless the grant application documents promulgated by the awarding entity specifically requires a signature from the Chairman of the Legislature:
1. Such documents shall be signed by Department Head or, if necessary County Administrator, and does not require County Attorney approval.
 2. All competitive grant applications are to be reviewed and approved by the County Administrator for any local share or similar costs. After receiving approval by the County Administrator, if the Chairman's signature is required the Department will be expected to coordinate that with the Clerk of the Legislature.
- B. Upon being awarded a grant, the Department Head shall coordinate with the Clerk of the Legislature to prepare a Resolution accepting the grant and establishing budget line(s). No County Attorney approval shall be required at this time.
- C. Any contracts with any outside agencies, contractors, vendors or entities to expend grant funds pursuant to the grant, shall remain subject to all normal contract approval processing, including County Attorney review and approval.

RE: ADOPT A HEALTH AND WELLNESS PROGRAM – HUMAN RESOURCES/PUBLIC HEALTH

WHEREAS, Resolution No. 53-17 authorized the creation of a Health and Wellness Committee, and
WHEREAS, the Health and Wellness Committee proposes to establish a Health and Wellness Program that promotes the culture of physical activity and healthy living in the workplace through education, activities, incentives, etc., and

WHEREAS, funding for the program is available in the Public Health budget account no. 4010.0466-Staff Development.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Schuyler County Legislature hereby adopts the following Health and Wellness Program.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS PROGRAM

Physical Activity Statement

Schuyler County as ‘employer’ encourages an environment that values a physical activity culture in the workplace where all employees are encouraged and supported to be more physically active while completing their work. Each department within Schuyler County is encouraged to inspire their own physical activity culture in their own way within the framework stated below:

- Encouraging regular physical activity both at the workplace and at home and recognizing the importance of work life balance.
- Valuing a work place-built environment that increases and enhances physical activity opportunities for employees.
- Utilizing and implementing additional physical activity strategies from reliable and research-based sources.
- Encouraging physical activity among all employees supporting a variety of capabilities.
- Encouraging various social support opportunities in the workplace that inspire physical activity.

The following activities may be conducted to further the culture of physical activity within Schuyler County:

1. Posting and discussing the culture of physical activity statement at department meetings, promoting through multiple communication channels, and presenting at new employee orientations to educate and inform all employees.

2. Employees interested in engaging in physical activity may seek additional information from any Health and Wellness Committee member.
3. Additional evidenced-based physical activity workplace strategies may be researched and offered by the Health and Wellness committee to the workforce as available and applicable or in reaction to what our data shows and/or what the workforce requests.
4. Learning opportunities on various physical activity topics may be provided to employees to increase knowledge, skills and attitudes on physical activity.
5. Conducting pre- and post-employee assessments as well as process evaluations may provide useful information on employee barriers to physical activity and barriers to planning and implementing successful workplace policy.

Ongoing efforts to assess the Schuyler County's worksite physical activity culture may be conducted on a regular basis to determine if activities in place are working and having an effect.

Some examples of evaluations used may include:

- Surveys/focus groups or questionnaires may be utilized to monitor behaviors, attitudes or knowledge of the workforce.
- Feedback from department heads and supervisors on current activities and programs.
- Assessing health insurance claims, use of sick time and county workman's compensation claims.

The Workforce's work output may be monitored by supervisors for any employee whose work output is negatively affected due to their activities. The employee may be counseled and disciplined as per established Human Resources Policy if warranted.

The Health and Wellness Committee currently promotes the following programs that support the culture of physical activity at Schuyler County. This list is not meant to be complete, just provide examples on what is being done to promote the culture of physical activity:

- Walking Program
- Promote Fitness DVD Rental Library
- Schuyler Steps Out Program
- Holiday Challenge
- Ergonomic Workstation assessments
